

Horticultural Society Library

Help for your garden; travel ideas; landscaping. Be knowledgeable in working with your landscape and yard assistants

Books: Visit, and see our 120 beautiful new 2014-2015 titles!

- Travel guides to the best gardens:
Indiana, Midwest, U.S., worldwide
 - Raised beds, tomato cages, balconies
 - Using native plants- Why and How
 - Organic gardening
 - Soil preparation, fertilizing, compost
 - Selecting plants- soil, wet or dry, sun, shade, wind, pets, children
 - Flower arranging
 - Ideas for trellises, walkways, patios
 - Great indoor plants
 - Landscape Design- many topics
 - Lawns- all aspects of care
 - Annuals and perennials
 - Shrubs, trees, vines, ground covers
 - Introducing children to gardening
 - How to propagate, prune, graft
 - Herbs, fruits, vegetables
 - Attracting birds, butterflies
 - Dealing with deer, critters and bugs
 - Greenhouses
 - Learn about ecology and the environment
 - Gardening magazines
-

Consult: Talk with our Library volunteers, including Master Gardeners.

E-mail connection: If you'd like to be on our email updates for seminars and new book announcements, e-mail us at HSLibrary@imamuseum.org

Website: <http://imahortsoc.org/library/>

Online catalog: <http://opac.libraryworld.com/opac/index.php> Username: HortSoc

Location: We are within the IMA Stout Art Library, through the double glass doors near the Toby Theater. 2,600 gardening books. Books may be borrowed by HortSoc members.

Hours: Thursdays, 1:00 pm to 8:00 pm, September through May. Open to the public. Appointments year round, Monday – Friday: Phone 317-460-7751 (Cindy) or e-mail us at HSLibrary@imamuseum.org To leave a message at our office, call 317-923-1331, ext. 429 Book donations accepted!