Featuring Lynne Steinhour Habig

Saturday April 30th
Noon, in the IMA Library
Photo Lecture/Discussion from her
Trips Abroad

The Cottage Garden genre is a multi-generational approach to gardening that is 'spot on' from Millennials to Boomers! Although this gardening tradition dates from the early 1300's in England, once established it is a perfect fit for today's busy lifestyle! Enjoy a brief trip through some fascinating history and a look at creating a cottage garden of your own. Cottage optional!

Horticultural Society members will recognize Lynne for her twenty years as IMA's Greenhouse Shop Coordinator, a post she held until her retirement in 2015. During her tenure at the IMA, she enjoyed writing, lecturing, volunteering and her frequent "guest spots" on Channel 13 and WFYI. For years she was Garden Feature Writer for Indianapolis Woman Magazine.

Lynne is a lifelong gardener born into a family with a long history of gardening. She thoroughly enjoys her new status working full-time in her garden at "The Shambles."
